Inguihan, Bato, Leyte. The enterprise is currently one of the famous bakeshops in the town of Bato, Leyte. It is the first bakery in the town of Bato. They specialized in the production of pasalubong such as galletas, salvaro, rosquillos and otap since the parents of the proprietor established the baked products business in the early 1950's. It became the town's foremost pasalubong center catering to travelers from nearby towns of Maasin and Sogod. Their products also reach the island province of Bohol because Bato is the major port of transfer to the said island.
